The Right Will Win

THERE are two forces striving for supremacy on this earth today: the Right and the wrong. Unfortunately the wrong, supported by tanks, flame-throwers, submarines, machine guns, and exemplified by Hitler, Muscle-in-i and Japan, seems to be in the seat of power. They are. The pitiable thing about this whole world mess lies in the fact that the forces of Right, or the forces of God, seem to have no champions at all. Within one week of the entry of Italy into the war, the bishops of the Roman Catholic church sent Mussolini a wire stating they hoped for victory for the Italian totalitarian nation. I wonder if we had not better keep an eye on all priests in the United States, as the Roman church here is the same as the church in Rome. It is completely an Italian institution, and if it is in sympathy with the dictatorship of Mussolini, as evidenced by that wire, I should say that it cannot be on the side of Right, or God—wouldn't you?

The "Converted Catholic," a magazine published at 220 West 48th St., N. Y., has the following to say about the Roman Catholic church. By the way, all "Psychiana" Students should subscribe to this magazine. It costs only a dollar a year. Here is what it says:

"Collapse of democracy in France has made it safe for the Vatican to express itself more openly in favor of totalitarian rule. Its newspaper, Osservatore Romano, lost no time in praising 'good Marshall Petain,' chief of the New French Fascist state. The Associated Press reports that the Vatican's newspaper took advantage of the occasion to endorse the fascist principle that 'authority is higher than the human will.' With obvious intent to clinch the Vatican's traditional opposition to the cherished freedoms of democracy, it declares in favor of authoritarianism because 'the human will is intolerant of restrictions and has attempted to overstep all limits, first with criticism, and then with revolution.' This is nothing new to us, for it is what the Catholic church has always taught.

"Proceeding further, the Vatican organ declares the aims of dictatorship to be in agreement with those of the Catholic church. It endorses the view of Portugal's dictator, Antonio Salazar, that 'the authoritarian regime creates a civic consciousness which opens and prepares the way for spreading and strengthening the moral conscience.' This, it adds, 'is the desire, aspiration and program of the church.' With the obliteration of individual freedom and criticism by the fall of Republican France, it now expectantly looks forward to the cultivation of a spirit there which 'will be able to impose the supremacy of the common good over private interests of individuals, groups and parties.' It hopes that this 'spiritual regeneration' of France will be the dawn of 'a new, radiant day, not only for France, but for all Europe and the world.'

"What has always surprised us is the fact that Americans have been so slow to realize that the Catholic church has never, and never could have officially held otherwise."

This definitely puts the Roman Catholic church on the side of Hitler and Mussolini; therefore, even if its preachments were true, which they are not, we cannot look for its support on the side of Right. As far as the Protestant church goes, I am afraid it can do nothing either to stop the wrong which is manifesting through Hitler and his side-kick, Mussolini. It is inconceivable to think that any "god" the Protestant church has can stop these damnable bombing planes and submarines. No one looks to any church of any sort for the Power which can bring peace to this earth—yet, that is just where they should look. But the Protestant church, with the Catholic, cannot even keep even with the board itself. The record of all churches is one of absolute failure. If any of them knew the slightest thing about the Spirit which is God, they could down Hitler et al in short order. For God is a Power—the greatest Power the world has. Yet the churches know nothing about that Power, nor do they teach it.

All the Protestant church has is a theory of God Almighty killed on a cross 2,000 years ago, for the "sins" of the man God created. No one believes that story any more. Had it not been for the Catholic Inquisitions it never would have been believed. But whether it is believed or not, it is not sufficient to reveal the Power of the Great Spirit of God to this earth. In this battle of wrong against Right, the Right will win. But it will not win on or by any theology the Protestant church has. The Catholic church we can completely eliminate, for we have seen that it has taken its place on the side of Hitler and Muscle-in-i. (He certainly muscled in.)

Where, then, are we to look for this Power of the Spirit of God? How are we to throw the Power of Right against the power of wrong? Where is the Spirit of God, and how will Hitler and his gang be brought to their knees? Is wrong to triumph over Right? If the Protestant church has none of God in it, where are we to look for God? All these questions are very pertinent and they all must be answered. I shall answer them now. The answer won't be liked by Protestantism, but it will be liked by all the thousands and tens of thousands who really want to find and

No Proof Whatsoever

THERE is no more evidence or proof of the existence of Jesus Christ on this earth at any time than there is of the existence of so many other "crucified gods" of antiquity, all of whom came down from "heaven" to save the world from "sins"—or so we are told by the respective followers of these "gods."

I make this statement in reply to a Tennessee minister who says: "I think you are doing a dangerous thing in upsetting the faith of millions who believe in Jesus." My answer to that is that if this "faith" which the priests and preachers have taught their followers to believe in is not true, they should be told that fact, and they should have their eyes opened to the real truths of God, especially since the Spirit of God is manifesting Its presence on the earth in no uncertain manner, through the "Psychiana" Movement.

It is not a matter of "faith." Nor is it a matter of what the multitudes have been taught by preachers and priests. I think it is, however, a matter of whether or not what these preachers and priests have taught is true or false. I say the whole story is false, and I can prove that it is false. I can prove it to the satisfaction of any thinking man or woman anywhere, and I can prove it according to the rules of evidence employed in the courts of the United States today. Anyone else who has studied at all can do the same thing, for the same authorities and the same evidence which have been available to me, are also available to anyone else. So I am telling no secrets when I state that the whole business of religion, as taught by the churches today, is neither true nor original. It was known and taught by many "pagan" systems of religion, and the whole fundamental structure was known to millions, thousands of years before Jesus Christ or the Christian church was ever heard of. I am about the only man having courage enough to step right out and make that statement. Many would like to make it, but they are afraid of the priests, the preachers and the church.

Well, I am not afraid of them. The one who has truth never needs to be afraid of anyone or anything. If he has the truth, that truth will automatically protect him, especially if he be dealing with the Realm of the Spirit of God. When I make the statement that there is no more proof of the existence of Jesus Christ on the earth than of any other "crucified god," I am speaking for profane history. No man alive can produce authentic history that such a man as Jesus ever lived. Yet histories by the score exist, and were written almost on the very spot where these miraculous things were supposed to have happened . . . were written by historians whose writings are certainly recognized as being authentic, yet not a single one of them ever heard of Jesus Christ. When the stars fell from heaven, and when the dead men got out of their graves and walked around the streets of Jerusalem, as the Christian bible says they did, these historians, living on the spot at that exact time, never heard of such happenings.

That alone is conclusive evidence that they were not happenings at all, but imaginings of the minds of proselyting priests who would tell the people anything to secure followers. They did that then; they do it today. Now add to the above significant statement that not one single original manuscript covering the Christian bible has ever been known to exist, and you have at once, more absolutely conclusive evidence that even the book which records these impossible happenings, is not authentic. If it were authentic, and if these "holy men of God" wrote what was true, then surely one little bit of evidence would have remained. Surely one historian would at least have heard rumors of these things. We have given world-wide publicity to the births of the Dionne quints. Their names will live in history, but here we have a "god" who, of all things, came down from "heaven" to earth, being born of a virgin, and doing things so marvelous that they have never been duplicated by anyone, and not a single historian ever heard of these things, and not a single line of actual copy which would be authentic has ever been known to exist.

The only references to the strange "god-works" are in the Christian bible, and nowhere else; and the four gospels, which allude to these happenings, are of absolutely unknown origin. No one knows who wrote them, nor does anyone know where they came from. All we know is that they "began to appear in the hands of priests." That is no evidence at all. One can easily prove that a goose laid a golden egg, if one reads only from "Mother Goose Rhymes." One can just as easily prove that Jesus Christ came to earth by way of a virgin's womb, with all the rest of that, if one believes the bible of the Christian. If one studies and believes the bible of the Hindoo, one may find there the same identical story of "god" coming down from heaven to save the world from sin, via the womb of a virgin. The two stories are completely alike, only the Hindoo had the story 1,400 years before either Jesus Christ or the Christian religion or the Christian bible was ever heard of. The doctrine of the "virgin birth" did not come into vogue until the 1,200 A. D.'s, and it has been a bone of contention ever since.

The story is not true. I am not required to prove that it is not true, although I can do that any time. The church cannot prove that it is true. It comes to us with a story about all these miraculous happenings, and it expects us to believe them on its say-so, and without advancing the slightest

Questions and Answers

Ques: Have you no creeds or doctrines at all? What sort of a guide do your Students have? They must have something to follow, or they would all be like sheep.

Ans: No, we have no dogmas nor creeds. I have the largest individual congregation in the world, yet we haven't a single creed. We don't need any. Nor do our Students need a set of rules to govern their lives. Neither does anyone else who recognizes the Spirit of God in his life. Of course, if your god died a few thousand years ago, and has never been heard from since, then you certainly need something to lean upon. Better forget those old traditions and let the ever-abiding Spirit of God IN YOU do the guiding. You won't need man-made creeds then. In spite of them all, look at the world today, and then you tell me how much of the Spirit of God is in it, in spite of all the creeds, dogmas and rituals of all churches combined. No, folks, the true picture of God was never brought to this world by any religious organization until the "PSYCHIANA" Movement come into being. And those truths will never be revealed to the world through the creed or dogma of any or all churches combined. For the Spirit of God knows nothing about such things. Man made them, not God. Consequently they cannot and will not last.

Ques: If the Spirit of God is the life in us, as you claim, is it the life in animals too?

Ans: All life, of whatever sort and kind, is a definite manifestation of the Great Founder of all Life, which Founder and Maker is God. Many manifestations, but one Great Life. Remember that you, as a man, are the greatest manifestation of God. You are the ONLY manifestation of God WHICH CAN COMMUNE WITH THE CREATOR. Use that faculty for the salvation of the race, why don't you? There is lots of need for you. The fields are ripe unto harvest, but the laborers are few—to steal something from the Christian bible.

Ques: Will the day ever come when the Protestant church will go back to the Roman Catholic church where it came from?

Ans: I do not know. I don't think so, but what difference would it make if it did. The whole structure of religion is about to change. Men and women are getting wise to both of these church organizations, and are discarding their teachings just as fast as they find out, through this Movement, what the truths of God really are. The "Jesus" theory of God is out. What will happen is that so many will leave "the church" that this institution will be either forced out of existence or it, too, will find and teach the Power of the Spirit of God. This Movement gets its members from every denomination in existence. We get twice as many Catholics as we do Protestants, and that is one reason I make the statement that the Roman church is failing faster than the Protestant church is.

Ques: Is it a fact that you are looked down upon in Moscow, and treated as a faker?

Ans: I don't know what people think of me either here in Moscow or anywhere else. Nor do I care. There is a saying that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country. I wonder. However, I think I speak truly when I state that I have more friends in this city and county than any other man here. I think I speak the truth when I say that. However, no man can do the work I am doing without incurring the enmity of "the faithful." But even "the faithful" seem to like me here in Moscow, Idaho.

Ques: Would you say that religion is dying here in America?

Ans: No. True religion will never die. Churchism is dying, and the foolish conception of God it brought with it. True religion—well—here in the United States the people are just beginning to find out the difference between churchism and the Presence of the Spirit of God in their lives. It will not take too long now for this message of the Power of the Spirit of God to go round the world. Just as soon as the full significance of the "PSYCHIANA" Movement is grasped, Americans by the hundreds of thousands will accept this new Teaching and through it they will, of course, find the ever-present Power of the Spirit of the Living God. May God hasten that day.

Ques: Is it not a fact that the God of the Hindoo you talk so much about never existed only in the minds of the peoples of India?

Ans: There is more proof of the existence of the "deity" of India than there ever was of the existence of Jesus Christ. And far more people believe still in the Indian deity than in the Christian deity. They were practically the same deity. Both, a trinity of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Read "GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON" for full details of 16 "crucified gods" before the time of Christ. I am not saying that any of them actually existed. I am saying that there is no more proof, and in some instances not as much proof of the existence on the earth of Jesus Christ than there is of the existence of the rest of the crucified "gods."

Truth Versus Fiction

Science finds that evolution
Is responsible for man
That in a piece of protoplasm
Was where physical life began,
But the "Scriptures" tell a story
Of how God in silence sat
Creating mankind in his image
When in loosened earth he spat.

The "Good Book" also tells us
This great universe we see A personality God created
In Four thousand-four B. C.
If this tale is truth, not fiction
One discrepancy appears,
What did physical life inhabit
Thru the previous billion years?

The Bible is accepted
By the "Christian" as God's word
Coming from inspired authors
When the "Master's" voice was heard,

Yet the tenets it dispenses

Are but ancient, pagan spawn
Borrowed, copied, reconstructed
To create the Christian dawn.

Our good orthodox adherents Stick to Bible law and lore
They dispute the proof that Science
Has established something more Than a mythical, pagan version
Of the force to which we bow
Which created and sustains us
And lives "In us" Here and now.

Thru the ages, Men have followed
Many cults and countless creeds,
Never finding the real power
Of the God that mankind needs,
"PSYCHIANA" broke the cycle
Of this ancient, modern dearth
Bringing God in new found glory
To the peoples of the earth.

Men and women, Now are finding
The true God, That silent power
A real dynamic, living spirit
Guiding them thru every hour,
With fear and superstition banished
They find comfort as they plod,
In the knowledge, That forever,
Man may "Walk and Talk with God."

Watch Your Umbrella

Patrons of a restaurant noticed tacked on a wall a sheet of paper which was printed in bold characters:

"The umbrella in the stand below belongs to the champion heavyweight fighter of the world. He is coming right back."

Five minutes later umbrella and paper had disappeared. In their place was another notice:

"Umbrella is now in possession of the champion marathon runner of the world. He is not coming back."

"PSYCHIANA" SPIRITUAL BLITZKRIEG

Let every reader of this Weekly join with us in throwing the Power of God against world disturbers by keeping quiet and repeating the following statement several times daily:

"THE POWER OF GOD
WILL BRING YOUR SPEEDY DOWNFALL."

Visualize a picture of Hitler as you do this, and KEEP IT UP.

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals.
We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace.
To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

The Editor.

The Right Will Win

know the Power of the invisible Spirit which is God—the only Power, by the way, which can bring this ghastly world condition to a peaceful solution.
Talk about hell on earth, we certainly are witnessing just that. Had any religious system, regardless of what it calls itself, known the first faint thing about God, this world would be a happy, peaceful place now. It is the insane, untrue, pagan story of "God crucified on a cross for the sins of the world" that has brought about present world conditions. The true story of the presence of God is now being told. It will take a bit of time, but the world will hear it. It will have to hear it, for unless God Almighty actually becomes known, with all His Power on this earth, these war-mad dictators will win. They have the force of arms.
They have the physical might. And if there is no organization through which the True Spirit of God can operate, then wrong will conquer Right.

Now, let me tell you all who and what God is, and where God may be found. God is the invisible Spirit of Life, Love, Peace, Justice and everything Good. God is omnipotent, omnipresent, and omniscient. That being a fact, and remembering that God is first of all Life, do you not see that each one of us has the actual Powers of the invisible Spirit of God in each of us? Of course you do. Churches have told us that God was killed on a cross 2,000 years ago, and has never been heard from since. They have told us that we are separated from God. They have said that if we join the church and believe what the church teaches, we shall, in some other life, and in a place called "heaven," know God. We must first have our sins washed away by "the blood of the lamb." We must join the church. If a Catholic, we are told that the Pope has the keys to the "kingdom of heaven" hidden somewhere in one of his pockets, and we are told that unless we confess our sins to some priest, we shall have to go into "purgatory." And Americans say they believe that. Let us not forget, however, that the Roman Catholic church has openly come out on the side of Hitler and Muscle-in-i. It has taken its stand against God. It is, therefore, opposed to God.

Now, if you live, and you do, of course, the fact that you have life is evidence that Almighty God lives in you. Otherwise you could not have that life. Now then, if God is omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent, and all-powerful, that just simply means that you have in yourself, and at your disposal, all the Power there is in the Realm of the Great Spirit—God. This has nothing to do with Jesus Christ. It has nothing to do with any church philosophy. It deals with you and God, and there is no need of any organization coming between you and God. There never has been such need.

Now then, we all see this wonderful source of Power existing in us.
How are we going to use it? How are we going to put it to work so that we may avail ourselves of it? That is what we want to know. It is the greatest problem of the ages. Yet the answer is very simple indeed. A school-child can understand it. Yet whole nations stumble over it—or they did until "Psychiana" came into being. To be able to use the Power of the Spirit which is God, all one has to do is to *recognize the fact that this great Power is our very life.

It lives in us, subject to our own call.*
That's easy, is it not? For if you realize that God actually lives in you with all His Power, why Power—more Power than you can ever use—will be at your disposal. You can't keep from using that Power. The recognition of the Power which is God in you, is sufficient to enable you to use that Power. In fact, the Spirit of God in you will manifest Itself, if you recognize Its Power and consciously live with the knowledge of that Spirit in you.

That's plain enough, is it not? I cannot put it any plainer. Now, how are we going to bring Hitler and the rest of the parasites who have joined with him to their knees? Simple enough. Recognize the staggering Power of God in you, and then consciously throw that Power against him. You can do that by following out our affirmation of fact: "The Spirit of God will bring your speedy downfall." Wear your badge every day. Live every moment in the consciousness of the Spirit of God. Give everything you can to this Movement. Support me. I can change this world for God, and will before I get through. I need your help. I need now $100,000. Are there 1,000 Students who will send me $100 each? Will you be the first? Let us see. But whether you support us financially or not,
throw the Power of God against Hitler and his satellites many times daily. If you recognize the Spirit of God in you, he will fall.

The Right must win. It will win.
Hitler is even now on the downgrade.
Great will be his fall. But I'm not interested in Hitler as a man. I am only interested in throwing the existing Power of the Right (the Spirit of God) against the wrong. Don't forget your obligation. If you have seen the light, work with me, and we'll make this old earth a place where God dwells among His people.
Not Jesus Christ or any other "crucified god," but the actual Spirit of God Itself—in you. It can do for you whatever you need done.

Why Speak So Plainly?

A certain amount of criticism comes to us every so often about the plain-speaking of this magazine. We are asked if we cannot "soft-pedal" some of our statements. I don't see why we should. Issues of the very highest magnitude are involved. It is a question of knowing God or not knowing God. If the world continues the downward pace it is setting now, what hope for security is there for any of us? Think of the brutal sight of a great big bullying nation like Red Russia attacking the harmless Finns. Is that civilization? Don't you think someone's voice should be raised against that sort of thing? As the world looks today, one wonders what it is all about. Well might one wonder. One cannot help but wonder. The future is all too insecure.

There is just one issue involved in the plain-speaking of this Weekly. That is the issue of God. I realize that the statements we make are very revolutionary so far as "orthodoxy" is concerned. As I see it, some new conception of God and the Power of God must come to this world ere long, or the future won't be worth having. Just suppose that these heathen totalitarian nations win this struggle. There is no assurance that they won't. In war, especially in modern warfare, no one can say in advance what will happen—perhaps such a calamity as this world has never seen before. It's horrifying to think about. It's worse than horrifying. We of the "Psychiana" Movement believe that the Power of the Spirit of the Living God can step into this ghastly picture in such Power that those who believe in the sword can be brought to see the uselessness of any victory achieved at the point of the sword.

We speak as plainly as we do because we know God exists. We have both an experience and a vision. The hand of God is upon us, else we could not do this work. We have, on this earth, certain ecclesiastical organizations which tell us they represent

God. They tell so many fantastic stories about God, and there are so many of them in the business that one cannot tell what to believe. We of "Psychiana" take issue with all these varying stories of God. We ask the pertinent question: "Why is it, with all the millions on the earth who have been 'saved' by the power of God, nothing can be done to manifest the Power of God right here on this earth?" That is what we of the "Psychiana" Movement want to know. We have a right to know. We are doing an honorable thing in inquiring into the cause for the failure of these so-called religious organizations to reveal anything at all of God to the world.

A very exhaustive analysis of all these religions has been made, and we are forced to the conclusion that God is not in any of the teachings of the present day ecclesiastical organizations which travel under the name and garb of God. We believe our point is well taken. None but a fool would deny the existence of God. None but a fool would deny that no religious organization on the face of the earth today is able to prove that it knows anything at all about God. Their "say-so" is not sufficient with the world in the condition in which we find it today. They may be specialists in "saving the soul," but we should be more interested in bringing the Power of God into these ghastly world conditions here and now than we should be in "saving" our souls. It's a far more noble thing to try to bring the Power of God to the earth to aid in stopping this brutal war, than it is to tell people that we can save souls after they die. I am very skeptical of all "soul-saving" institutions, if those institutions cannot reveal God to the world today.

It has been abundantly demonstrated that the Spirit of God is upon this Movement. It has been abundantly demonstrated that the Spirit of God, through this Movement, is making God an actual reality to hundreds of thousands of human lives, who, for the first time in their existence, are finding who and what God is, and, believe it or not, are finding the Power of God entirely outside of the teachings of those organizations which tell us that they, and they alone, should teach the truths of God. Explain that away if you can, for facts speak louder than religious myths and traditions do. Just as long as you can keep people afraid that they will "lose their souls" if they don't do "this" or do "that," then you can keep their eyes off God on this earth now.

All these religious organizations tell us that we were born in sin, doomed to hell without a chance unless we believe what they teach, and while asking us to believe what they teach, they come to us with absolutely no proof whatsoever of their story. Yet they tell us, on their own say-so, that they are "ordained by God to save the world." Then why under the sun don't they start doing it? Frankly, I don't believe one single thing any of them teach about God. Certainly we know that the Supreme Ruler of this universe never allowed a few Roman soldiers to nail him up on a cross, yet they all teach that. Certainly we know that the great God of this universe, matchless in Power, never entered into the womb of a woman, virgin or non-virgin. It's rank idiocy to try to believe it, and we of "Psychiana" just don't believe it.

We of the "Psychiana" Movement have abundantly proved those stories

"GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON"

This is the book which brought Dr. Robinson an Honorary Membership in The Eugene Field Society.

NO ONE WHO WANTS THE TRUTH ABOUT GOD AND RELIGION CAN AFFORD TO BE WITHOUT THIS DYNAMIC BOOK.

With Our... Students

Now we have a letter from Milwaukee, Wisc., Student No. 31-815. This lady says in part:

"I want to tell you I am enjoying the Lessons very much and I am so glad that the affirmations are simple, and believe me I am sure faithful to them. I take half an hour from 8:30 to 9:00 every morning and then keep on using them wherever I go or whenever I have the time. They are wonderful."

These affirmations may seem simple but they are the most dynamic things in the world today. The Power of God exists in each one of us as an invisible Spiritual Force. We use this Force or Power by the spoken word. In other words, we speak into existence the things we need. We make a statement to the Spirit which is God, add this Power to that statement and the things we desire come to us. It is all so very simple when one realizes the existence of this staggering God-Power. I am working very hard in order that the whole world may know that God Almighty was never killed on the cross but lives on this earth today in every man's life.

It has been two thousand years now since the last of about fifty crucified gods were heard from and I am quite sure that story has been told for the last time. I cannot conceive of any new system of religion coming into existence based on the untrue theory of a god killed for the sins of the world he created. That story is not true and the true picture of God is being brought to this world by this Movement which denies practically everything the Christian church teaches. I want every Student to stand by this Movement one hundred per cent, and if each one of you will do that it will not take me very long to put these great truths of God in every home in America.

Now we go to Jersey City, N. J., and find there a Student living on Seidler Street. This good gentleman says:

"I am sure you read this in every letter, but I will never be able to thank you enough for bringing this message to me. I cannot express myself enough to tell you how grateful I am. I am very pleased to be connected with this organization for it means much to me and you will hear from me occasionally."

This gentleman enclosed an extra check in addition to his payments and I wish every Student would do that. I am shortly launching a campaign designed to raise a minimum of $100,000. When that campaign is launched let every Student show his or her appreciation by helping me raise that amount of money.

From Detroit, Michigan, comes a letter from Mrs. Armstrong, a good Student of ours and she states that she has just received the Weekly and it is so very interesting. She has ten additional copies sent her and these she distributes. She states that she surely enjoys reading the articles, in fact, she says she would rather read them than eat her breakfast.

This magazine has created quite a sensation. Its distribution is growing by leaps and bounds. I think it is the most plain spoken religious periodical in the world today, and just as long as I edit it it will be just that way. This world faces one of two things—either complete rejuvenation or complete annihilation. It will be a battle to the death between the forces of destruction and the forces of good. No church organization in existence has today brought a true picture of God to this world, and outside of the "PSYCHIANA" Movement there does not exist a single religious organization which can actually demonstrate the power of God through its teachings in human lives. The Christian church, both Catholic and Protestant, have given this world religious tommyrot for so long that the world is beginning to doubt whether there is a god or not. There is, but the world has been looking for God in the sky, or on the cross, or some other place. It has located God everywhere except where God is to be found, and that is in every human life. When a man or woman grasps this fact you will readily see how unnecessary the teachings of any church organization are.

Now we go to Hattiesburg, Miss., and one of our good Students there writes the following letter:

"I read some of your Lessons in 1938. They were wonderful. As I told you when I was studying these Lessons, I had no income. But I know that God is able to open the way."

There is no question about that, Miss Hunt. As a matter of fact, the way has already been opened as all the Power you can ever use and more is available for you, just waiting for you to speak it into existence. If you will do that according to my instructions in the Lessons you will find that the Spirit of God is the most dynamic power this world has ever known.

Student No. 33-756 in Compton, Calif., writes as follows:

"It is with the greatest pleasure that I am writing this morning to tell you that I received my fourth Lesson and I sure am delighted. I want to tell you that I have already made a very good start toward getting what I want out of life, but there is very much more I am expecting. When I started with you in March, 1940, I was sure at the very depth of despair and discouragement. I had no job and was on relief. I hardly dared use the dollar I sent to you, but your advertisement which I saw in a magazine looked so good to me I said if it is right I shall always get what I want and so I have. Now I have a housekeeping job in a very lovely home, one just like I am expecting for myself and everything that goes with it, and happiness added on. Oh, I am so very grateful to 'PSYCHIANA' . . ."

You will note that this lady, Mrs. Wright, was down and out, was in the very depths of despair, had no job and was on relief. Yet, before she received her fourth Lesson everything had changed.

Now, certainly it was not anything I did which brought about that change, because I have never seen any of the Students whose letters I reproduce here. Those Students just simply followed my instructions and caught the true conception of the Spirit of God and that great Spirit brought to them the things they wanted. It is very simple. It means that the old idea of God with a spear sticking in his side and a crown of thorns on his head is to go, and in place of that philosophy we must have one which puts God where he rightfully belongs, that is, right in the middle of every human life.

Private Car

Lincoln was the only President for whom a private railroad car was especially built. Constructed in the millitary car shops at Alexandria, Va., the rich chocolate brown car bearing the coat of arms of the United States was bullet-proof and had two lounges of unusual length to accommodate the President's great height. That this car was never used by Lincoln in his lifetime, but only to convey his body from Washington to its final resting place, is a comment on the simplicity of the man hardly to be understood in this day, when private cars and such things are regarded as the very evidences of greatness, and presidents use battleships for fishing trips—The Traffic World.

Final Poll Figures

I believe I can just get under the wire with another, and final poll result. This last result shows Willkie leading Roosevelt by a very substantial margin. The percentage of all ballots cast is as follows—Willkie 63% and Roosevelt 37%. This takes in all ballots, and what straggling few may still arrive will not alter the result, as the same percentage is dribbling in. The poll started off with 2 to 1 in favor of Mr. Willkie, and has finally stopped on the above figures. Let it be understood that there is no politics in this private poll. The figures speak for themselves and they have come from every State in the Union. I consider them indicative of the final national result.

Subtle, Indeed

Little Georgie received a new drum for Christmas, and shortly thereafter, when father came home from work one evening, mother said: "I don't think that man upstairs likes to hear Georgie play his drum, but he's certainly subtle about it."

Father—Why?

Mother—Well, this afternoon he gave Georgie a knife, and asked him if he knew what was inside the drum.

Einstein Gives Ideas on God

"NEW YORK, Sept. 11. (AP)—Professor Albert Einstein advised religious teachers yesterday to 'give up the doctrine of a personal God, that is, give up that source of fear and hope which in the past placed such a vast power in the hands of priests.'

"In a paper presented at the conference of science, philosophy and religion at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, the German refugee scientist declared that 'a legitimate conflict between religion and science cannot exist. Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind.'

"Einstein said, however, that he was required to qualify his conclusion with reference to the concept of God.

"During the youthful period of mankind's spiritual evolution,' he wrote, 'human fantasy created gods in man's image who, by operations of their will were supposed to determine, or at any rate to influence, the phenomenal world. Man sought to alter the disposition of these gods in his own favor by means of magic and prayer. The idea of God in the religions taught at the present is a sublimation of that old conception of the gods.'"

Simplicity is oftenest an adroit pretence.—Mme. de Lambert.

est jot or tittle of evidence that there is one single grain of truth in any of the story. Well, I, for one, do not believe it. Neither can anyone else who knows the complete setting of the story believe it. The only way it can be believed is to believe some priest or preacher, and not one of them can introduce the slightest scrap of evidence which would prove that the whole story is not only a church-made origination, but the whole story was known in detail to the "heathen" 1,400 years before the "man Christ Jesus" ever came on the horizon.

This whole story, Brother minister in Tennessee, is a church origination. The Roman Catholic church is the sponsor of the story. It is not true. No evidence exists that it is true. We are asked to believe it just simply because the Roman Catholic church first advanced the story, and has propagated it ever since. This world will never know God through that story any more than it will know God through the Hindoo story. They are both the same.

I may be, as the Tennessee minister says, "upsetting the faith of millions who believe in Jesus," and I shall very frankly admit that I am. If that faith is not true, should it not be upset—especially when the plain, simple truths of the Spirit of God are being made known to humanity by the Spirit of God itself? Of course, that "faith" should be upset if it is not true. Then, once more, I make the statement, and challenge successful contradiction, that there is not a scrap of authentic evidence outside of the writings of the church itself, which can prove that it is true. Again I maintain that before one cent is collected by any religious organization, that organization should be required by law to PROVE its story is true before it is allowed to hold its property tax-free or to collect one penny from anyone. I can prove the "Psychiana" doctrine true, and I can prove that those who have advocated this "faith" are utterly unable to give one grain of actual evidence which would prove the virgin-birth or even the physical existence of Jesus Christ on this earth at any time. Such proof never has existed.

It makes no difference how many millions are on the rolls of the churches advocating that theory of God. That does not enter into it at all. The only reason their names are there is because they have blindly believed, through fear, what the priests and preachers have told them to believe. Not because they know one single thing about the story. No wonder the Roman church will not let its followers read the bible. They wouldn't find God in it if they did. What they would find would be the sheer and utter nonsense of the whole story.

No, beloved, things are changing. These theories of God have left the world in a horrible mess. God has not been manifested to the human race by any of these church organizations. The public is getting a bit tired of being told to "only believe." Like myself, folks want to know, and, like myself, they are finding that the Spirit of the living God exists entirely outside of anything any church in existence teaches. That is the staggering fact which will revolutionize this world for God. That is the staggering fact through which men and women will come to know the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God right here on this earth. It can never be known through the story of any virgin-born "crucified god," for such stories are not true. They are "pagan" and "heathen" in their origin, and this fact is proved by the condition of the world today.

Those of us gifted with prophetic spiritual insight, leap for joy when we realize that the truths of God are, at last, being brought to this earth. It's a gladdening thing. Americans everywhere, both Catholic and Protestant, are very rapidly throwing over the name of these false church philosophies, and as they go, men and women are finding the Power of the Spirit of God entirely outside of such theories and teachings. In fact, God is not to be found in these stories because they are pagan in their origin, and can easily be proved to be just that. Let us all—every member of this organization, be happy in the thought that at last, the Power of the Spirit of God is being made known on the earth.

New Religion and New Deal Our Need, Psychologists Told

President of Psychological Association Analyzes History Before Group

By Thomas R. Henry

State College, Pa., Sept. 4.—Light for mankind beyond the darkness of the present war depends on the emotional drive of a new religion toward a new ideal man, Dr. Edward C. Tolman of the University of California, president of the American Psychological Association, declared in opening the annual meeting of the association here last night.

The Christian era, he explained, already has seen four human ideals replace each other. First was the "spiritual man" of the period of the Christian martyrs and saints when society as a whole attached greatest importance to the virtues of suffering and sacrifice for the supernatural. By the later Middle Ages this was replaced by the ideal of the intellectual man, when scholarship, however unattainable to the masses, became the surest road to reverence by one's fellows.

This in turn, he said, was replaced by the ideal of the economic man when society attached greatest importance to the abilities required in piling up wealth. This persisted up to the present but has broken down in totalitarian countries and is replaced by the ideal of the heroic man. The first three failed to satisfy some fundamental needs of human nature and led to an unstable society.

Italy, Germany, Spain, Norway, Holland, Belgium and France all collapsed for fundamentally the same reason—abandonment of the ideal of the economic man, he stressed.

"All were ready," he said, "for the appearance of strong men—father surrogates. The myth of the heroic man came into its own."

But, Prof. Tolman stressed, this ideal has fundamental weaknesses just as did the three which preceded it. The second generation in the Nazi and Fascist states will have been adopted into the elite and sooner or later—just as happened in the ideal of the religious man—will come to think not in terms of the group but in terms solely of their primary selves and of their narrow class.

This may leave man without any ideal, he said, and result in new dark ages. The only escape, Dr. Tolman stressed, seems to be in setting up the ideal of the "psychological man," in whom all four major sets of human wants would be harmoniously satisfied. These he classified as the want of physical comfort, of prestige and respect, of self sacrifice, and of identification with something greater than self.

"We must not," he said, "preach Americans against Germans, against Europeans, but all humanity against disease, misery, and ignorance, against battle, murder and sudden death. Our wars will then occur not between one group and another but between the whole of humanity and hostile nature."

But while this seems the only way of escape, Prof. Tolman said, "it can only prevail if there also appears some corresponding new emotional, dynamic behind it, some new religion to push and force it. It is our task to discover what this religion will be and to make it prevail." —Quoted.

Expensive Boarder

Two men from neighboring farms were telling each other their troubles. One was complaining about not getting enough to eat.

"Only this morning," he said, "the cook said to me, 'Do you know how many pancakes you've eaten already this morning?' I told her I hadn't thought to count them. 'Well,' she said, 'that last one was the twenty-sixth!' Well, sir, that made me so mad that I got up from the table and went to work without my breakfast!"

Why Speak So Plainly?

of God to be untrue in their every detail. We are bringing to the world another conception of God. The new conception is standing up. It is proving itself. That's something orthodox church theologies never have been able to do. Speak plainly—you ask me why I speak plainly?—well, just because we want the world to know the true picture of Almighty God. That picture has not yet been brought to the world by any religious organization. If it had, there would be no war on the earth today. It's idiotic to even think that the Power of the Spirit of God is known to either church or state today. Until this picture of ours was brought to the world, this world never had a sign of a hope of knowing the fullness of the Power of the Spirit of God—here and now, where we need it most.

Why, then, should we not speak plainly? We speak kindly. We prove what we say; but as for "soft-pedaling" our message, or wrapping it in a sugar-coated pill—not "Psychiana." Too great things are at stake. Either the church story of God is true—or it is not true. If it is true, it has failed to reveal God to the world. If it is not true—for God's sake let's find the truth and teach it. This, we of "Psychiana" are doing. This we shall continue to do regardless of anything. If anything, we shall write more plainly as the horrors in Asia and Europe continue. We are anxious to throw the Power of the Spirit of God against these ghastly conditions. We believe God can change them by the Power of His own might. We do not believe the true conception of God was ever brought to this world until we brought it. Therefore, we are doing the world a service in bringing to it the actual truths of God, even though they clash with everything "orthodox" has ever taught. Orthodoxy and its "crucified god" have failed the human race. Now let's give the "Psychiana" conception a chance.
